Dear Vera,

Last week I received a touching letter from the mother of Jennifer Feyt – the literature major who died over the Christmas vacation. I thought you might like to see a copy.

I plan to send a graduation program to Mrs. Feyt, along with the playbill to a play Jeanne Andree Nelson directed this past week (the play was dedicated to Jennifer). I will also let her know that we have named the Lit\Lang fall essay award after Jennifer and Robert Armstrong, who died last summer.

As ever,

Tom Kinsella
